Overview

Jano Sans is the firstborn of the Jano family. Initially designed to seamlessly perform on web apps and digital media, it eventually became a favorite for brand communication, conveying a collaborative and tech-savvy profile with a wealth of great OpenType features such as alternative shapes, small caps, ligatures, localized forms, case-sensitive forms, and more.

With 18 styles and over 1800 glyphs per style, this elegant neo-humanist sans-serif with a geometric feel was built to be a versatile workhorse type system. Whether for branding, printed brochures, web and app applications, or broadcast, Jano Sans has your back, ensuring legibility and reliability across more than 290 languages.
